

LOWDEN EASILY CARRIED STATE FOR NOMINATION

Wood Got But Four Counties—Johnson Vote Was Big.

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 14.—Latest figures today in the election of republican national convention delegates at yesterday's presidential preference primary gave the following:

Lowden preference delegates, 34; no preference, 16.

One of the men who filed as unaffiliated has announced he will support Senator Hiram Johnson.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 14.—According to latest returns this morning Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois won the Republican preference primary in his home state yesterday by a plurality of 64,574 on returns from all but 439 scattered precincts, although General Leonard Wood carried Cook county (Chicago) by 27,443 and Senator Hiram Johnson of California, whose name had to be written on the ballot, surprised political leaders by running up a vote of 45,193 votes including 40,881 in Cook county. There were no Democratic candidates on the ticket, but a number of names were written in by a few hundred voters.

Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, Republican national committeeman for Illinois carried every ward except one for the two leading candidates, gaining complete control of the Cook county organization for four years.

Chicago Bonds Killed
While less than half the vote in the state was cast and only a sixth as many women as men went to the polls, feminine thrift added to the pluralities by which four bond issues for $34,000,000 for municipal improvements were defeated in Chicago. On the primary candidates, the proportion of women to men was about the same for the two leading candidates, but on the bond issues the female percentage ran much higher on the negative vote.

Wood Got Four Counties
General Wood, the only candidate to make a campaign in the state, carried McDonough, Alexander and Pulaski counties in addition to Cook, but all the other 98 counties went to Governor Lowden, who on the incomplete unofficial returns scored a majority of 19,381 over his opponents. The governor rolled up a vote downstate that reached a margin of as high as seven to one in one or two counties, bringing him to the Cook line with nearly 100,000 lead over General Wood.

Johnson Vote a Surprise
The surprise of the primary according to supporters of both Governor Lowden and General Wood was the large number of voters who wrote in the name of Senator Johnson, who had made no speeches in Illinois and had no organization. Supporters of both regular candidates asserted that the Johnson vote hurt their candidate to the benefit of the other. Never in Illinois or possibly national politics had so many voters voted a sticker ticket. The largest previous spontaneous vote recorded in Illinois was that for Theodore Roosevelt in 1916, when some 12,000 votes were written in for him. In Chicago, where the bulk of the Johnson vote was cast, the Johnson vote showed a smaller percentage of women than that for Governor Lowden or General Wood. The leaders polled about one-sixth as many female as male voters while the Californian polled only one-seventh as many women as men.

The woman vote downstate for Johnson was not counted separately. The figures from 5260 precincts out of 5696 in the state including all 2445 in Cook county showed the following results:

Lowden, men 190,480, women 32,502, total 222,982.
Wood, men 134,665, women 23,743, total 158,408.

Johnson, men 35,516, women 5365, (downstate) men and women 4312, total 45,193.
Lowden has 35 Delegates
Of the district delegates elected to the national conventions all the Democrats were unopposed, while 35 of the Republicans were pledged to Lowden and 13 ran as unpledged. One of the unpledged delegates in the tenth district (Cook county) had announced that he would support Senator Johnson and the other 14 were adherents of Mayor Thompson. The eight delegates at large will be selected at the state convention later.

VOLUNTEERS IN ENGINES; MANY REACH NEW YORK

Ex-Service Men, Bank- ers, Etc., Man Locomo- tives in East.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, April 14.—Civilian volunteers to break the strike of rebellious railroad workers here were drilling in New York and New Jersey terminals today and railroad officials announced services of several hundred men probably would be utilized to operate suburban trains. The first volunteer trains for commuters on the Erie railroad were greeted at stations by crowds waving flags and cheering. On one of these trains, Mayor A. F. Wood of West Wood, N. J., was firing the engine.

"The Millionaire Special" from Upper Montclair rolled into the Erie terminal after a forty-five minute run. The firemen were Richard Sanderson, New York manager of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, and J. R. Quinn, the New England representative of that company. Another Erie crew included Captain Charles Mott of J. P. Morgan & Co., and Joseph Andreas, Jr., son of the vice president of the bank of New York.

Mayor Charles H. Martens of East Orange, N. J., and Frank L. Kramer for 17 years national bicycle champion, fired a train from South Orange to Hoboken.

Prepared to Stay
Commuters from New Jersey to New York boarded the trains equipped with traveling bags and prepared, if necessary, to spend the night in New York.

There was evidence of ill-feeling between strike sympathizers and strike breakers. At Hackensack, N. J., a man stepped from a train manned by members of an American Legion post and asked the mother of Albert Scrivens, one of the crew, if her son was working as a strike breaker. Told that he was, the man declared he would "get" Scrivens. He boarded the train again and could not be found.

First reports during the day indicated isolated movements of strikers to return to work. Fifteen crews of

Wednesday Evening Closing Discussed

The merchants committee of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce held a very interesting and well attended meeting at the city hall last evening at which time a number of important matters were discussed. Chief among these was the Wednesday evening closing of stores in the city, which it is anticipated will be accomplished in the very near future.

The committee was assured that already four-fifteenth of the business men of the city are in favor of closing Wednesday evenings.

The posting of signs in the country directing tourists to Dixon was taken up and discussed at some length. A committee composed of Guy Miller, O. H. Martin, Frank C. Sproul, Thomas Richards and Henry Abbott were named to head the Wednesday closing movement and secure the cooperation of every merchant in the city in bringing about this practice at once.

The members of the merchants committee strongly endorsed a program of summer band concerts in Dixon and were unanimously of the opinion that the organization is deserving of better civic support. Special features, including solo numbers were suggested as a means of inspiring greater interest in the concerts throughout the summer months.

The committee will hold monthly meetings, the dates of which will be announced at every merchant and business man in the city is requested to attend these meetings to take part in the discussions and movements to be launched to bring about a better Dixon.

STRIKE BULLETINS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 14.—Evidence obtained by the department of justice was said today to show that the Russian communist international is undertaking to use the railroad strike as the vehicle for the creation of a mass strike in the United States.

Evidence which the department has received was declared to justify the statement that the strike was to be merely a step in the well known plan of the Communist group and that the end aim was a mass strike to be followed by a revolution.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 14.—Reports from federal agents were said to have disclosed that the communist party was financing and otherwise aiding the strike through the agency of the Industrial Workers of the World.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

IMPROVED IN CENTRAL WEST.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 14.—Improved freight in the central west with insurgent railroad men returning to work at traffic conditions were reported today several points, but the industrial situation in Ohio and Michigan reached a crisis as a result of stoppage of fuel supplies and in the far west a dozen passenger trains were reported stalled on the "loyal" brotherhoods predicted in southern California.

Both insurgent leaders and officials the battle of the strikers had reached a stage where it would be "a lingering affair" but brotherhood heads declared the insurgents gradually were losing strength.

Railroads in the Chicago area concentrated every effort to move freight and declared that 50 per cent of the switch engines were operating. The roads announced that a further influx of "loyal" brotherhood men from other cities had occurred and reported that railroad officials and newly employed men were aiding in moving freight.

At New Orleans six insurgent leaders arrested last night in a raid on a strikers' meeting were being held on federal warrants charging interference with the United States mails.

Major General Leonard Wood was hastening to Chicago from Boston, where he closed his political speaking tour last night.

CABINET TODAY MADE DECISION ON RAIL STRIKE

No Intimation is Given Concerning Pro- posed Action.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 14.—President Wilson and his cabinet discussed the railroad strike for more than an hour today and apparently reached some conclusion, but there was no intimation as to its nature.

Attorney General Palmer made this statement as he left the white house: "It is fair to conclude that the strike situation was discussed, but I am not prepared to say what conclusions were reached."

Other members would make no statement referring inquiries to the Attorney General. Some intimated, however, that definite decision had been made one way or another as to government intervention.

New Board Summoned.

Mr. Palmer went direct from the White House to his office and immediately summoned for a conference his assistants who have been keeping in close touch with the strike situation.

Soon after the cabinet meeting the President telegraphed the members of the newly named railroad board asking them to come to Washington and be prepared to function as soon as their nominations had been confirmed by the senate.

The immediate summoning of the board was one of the matters decided upon at the cabinet meeting, it was learned. The President had been informed that Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, had prepared a resolution permitting the board to meet here instead of Chicago and the President's action was in anticipation of the adoption of this resolution.

Shortly after convening at noon today the senate at the request of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader went into executive session to consider the nominations to the railroad labor board submitted yesterday by the President.

Cabinet Met Early.

The cabinet assembled promptly at 10 o'clock this morning to discuss the strike. The members went direct to the white house to meet President Wilson

LUTHER LEAGUE PARTY—

Ninety young people of St. Paul's Lutheran church enjoyed the party given by the Luther League last evening. A most bounteous supper was served at 6:30 followed by a brief business meeting in which it was voted to give $25 to the new building fund of the Nachusa Orphanage, and $5 to the general benevolence work of the church. Rev. L. W. Walter addressed the young people briefly on the value of team work in the league and in the church.

Following the supper games and stunts furnished the amusement. Miss Helen Martenson managed to fly the highest in the wild goose chase, while in the Dressing of Paper Dolls, Miss Lula Baughman, as the doll, and Mr. Harold Boyer, as the designer, captured the prize. Some very clever costuming effects were secured by the young men, so that the judges had a difficult time in determining the best dressed doll. Syllabic singing tested the auditory powers of the hearers, but the real sensation of the evening was when good-night kisses materialized themselves into molasses taffy.

HONORED BIRTHDAYS—

A company of twenty relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Harry Gerdas on Monday evening to honor the birthday of Mrs. Gerdas. The affair was arranged as a surprise. It was also complimentary to Arthur Gerdas, whose birthday fell on Monday, also. A very delightful evening was spent in games and music, with the enjoyment of delicious refreshments later.

When checks come back from the bank a good way to straighten out accounts for the month is to paste the checks back on the stubs. The returned check is in itself a receipt and takes care of that part of the business.

The large check books having three stubs on a page are a little easier to handle than the small books. A rubber band snapped around the returned checks keeps them from the blank part of the book and causes no inconvenience.

This is really worth trying, for it verifies the monthly statement and preserves the checks and does away with the necessity of keeping receipts.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST—Sliced oranges, waffles, syrup, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Broiled cottage ham, Hungarian potatoes, hot rolls, marmalade, tea.

DINNER—Corned beef, boiled potatoes, parsnips, brown bread and butter, raisin pie, coffee.

My Own Recipes.

A cottage ham is nothing more or less than the front part of pork shoulder. As there is no bone there is no waste. These little hams are usually very carefully cured and smoked and are delicious as to flavor. Broiled or boiled, the meat is tender and a delightful change from the ordinary fare.

BROILED COTTAGE HAM. Slice the meat quite thin. Broil just on one side until the flame of the gas oven until the edges curl.

HUNGARIAN POTATOES.

2 onions.
3 tablespoons bacon fat.
1 teaspoon salt.
4 teaspoon paprika.
1/2 teaspoon pepper.
3 cups potato cubes.
3 cups boiling water.
Saute onion in fat till yellow. Add salt and paprika. Scald potatoes for five or ten minutes. Drain. Add potatoes to onion, pour over boiling water and cook in a covered dish till tender.

CORNER BEEF.

3 1/2 pounds corned beef.
Cold water.
Rinse beef well in cold water. Tie to keep in shape. Put in a kettle, cover with cold water, and bring slowly to the boiling point. Remove scum as it rises. Simmer for two or three hours until tender. The potatoes and parsnips may be boiled in the broth.

They used to say talk was cheap, but that was before the day of limited telephone service.

TO NEW ORLEANS CONVENTION. Dr. and Mrs. Murphy and daughter and Dr. Marion White will leave next week for New Orleans to attend a medical convention.

I will be at my office at Dixon Loan & Building Association every Wednesday evening, Saturday afternoon and evening to receive personal tax schedules. J. A. Whitish, Assessor. 8912

Come and have a good time

Have you read about this famous test?
—and how the New Edison triumphed?

Come in. You'll want to see the Official Laboratory Models in our store. They are exact duplicates of the wonderful instrument used in the famous test at Albany.

This is how Mario Laurenti made that test. He sang. Suddenly he ceased to sing. The New Edison took up the same song "The Phonograph with a Soul!"

6,000 teachers of New York State's public schools were listening to the comparison. Only by watching Laurenti's lips could they tell when he was singing, and when the New Edison was RE-CREATING his voice.

The instrument which triumphed in this daring comparison, and the exact duplicates now in our store, are exceptional phonographs.

We'll guarantee each of these duplicates to sustain the Albany test, —yes, guarantee!

Our Candidate for President
FRANK O. LOWDEN

WHO IS PAYING? WHY?

Who are financing the men in the fight for the presidential nominations? The voters are entitled to know. A candidate's friends in politics give a better idea of the candidate's real principles than all the platforms ever written.

Voters study biographies of candidates. Why not biographies of the men behind the candidates? It is the invisible power that does most of the harm in American political life.

There is a simple way to bring the backers of candidates for nominations into the open light of day. Let all candidates be compelled to publish week by week the names of the contributors to their campaign funds and how the money has been spent.

Last minute information is of little use. Public opinion should be given time to exert its influence. A weekly account showing receipts and expenditures, can harm no honest man. Publicity of expenses might reveal a candidate's methods to his rivals, it is true. But, if all the best methods stood open to everybody, the public would be protected against an inferior candidate obtaining a nomination through superior methods.

After it is known how much money is being spent to secure nominations and the way it is being spent, Congress can pass legislation limiting expenses to a reasonable sum.

Senator Borah has suggested such a law. He would limit the money which may be spent in behalf of any presidential candidate. Such a law would stop the "buying" of nominations. It would give the poorer candidate an equal chance with his wealthier rival. It would keep "slush funds" out of the race. It would make it impossible for selfish interests to control the conventions, or the nominees.

The Borah bill, or one like it, should be pushed through immediately. Before this campaign goes much farther. Every person who favors fairness, honesty, and the people's welfare, desires publicity for campaign expenditures.

EUROPE'S DEBTS

European unrest shows no indication of being part of a plan for a general repudiation of war debts. Eventually, there will have to be some form of partial repudiation, but it will be postponed as long as possible. When repudiation comes, it will probably be in the form of heavy taxation upon war bonds. It will thus try to escape the ugly reproach of national bankruptcy.

This method could be applied, of course, only to domestic loans. Europe's foreign loans have been issued with the understanding that they shall be free from all domestic taxation. To levy a tax on them would be an act of bad faith, which would have the same ill effect as repudiation. Only if the creditor nations consent to this form of bankruptcy is it likely to occur.

The most secure of all Europe's foreign debts are those owed to America. The Europeans must have American goods. They cannot now afford to confess an inability to pay for what they have already consumed. Otherwise future supplies will very largely be cut off. America can curtail her exports to Europe without great inconvenience.

It is different with the money which Europe owes Great Britain. British prosperity is more closely bound up with international trade than is America's. If the European continent repudiates its war debts to Great Britain, the latter would suffer great injury by cutting off its trade with the offending nations. Therefore, it is likely that the British government may agree to some kind of informal cancellation if the time ever comes when full payment of foreign obligations cannot be made by the continent.

That time, however, has not arrived. It

BRINGING UP FATHER
by George McManus

may never come if a large part of the German war indemnity can be collected. Should the continentals be forced to confess a partial insolvency, the American people may voluntarily cancel some of the European debts to this country. If not, the ten billion dollars will rank as a first preferred claim. It will probably be paid to the last cent, because Europe must continue to have our food and raw materials.

THE NEW RULER
"Women has been faithful in a few things; now God is going to make her ruler over many things."

So spoke Susan B. Anthony, mother of woman's suffrage, some 50 years ago. The hour of fulfillment is here. Yet, face to face with national woman's suffrage, even the most sensitive of politicians no longer feels that dread thereof he formerly professed.

Were not many evil things to happen when woman was enfranchised nationally? Home-life would be destroyed. The nation's moral fabric would be weakened. Mother-love, the most beautiful thing in nature, would be undermined. Nearly every politician was bent upon averting the disaster.

But how times have changed! Today politicians are eager to place women on local, state and national committees. And with what pride a political leader announces that Mrs. Jones, president of the Woman's club, has consented to become a member of the executive committee of his organization or that Mrs. Smith, president of the Mothers' club, will be on the campaign committee!

If it is the universal fault of politicians that they are the first to fight a proposed reform, it should be credited to them as a virtue that they are ever quick to recognize and make the best of a reform that has become or is about to become a fact.

So that, fulfilling Susan B. Anthony's half-century old prophecy, woman already is enjoying her rulership, even before, nationally-speaking, she has had an opportunity to vote for president.

SHOES
Italy apparently intends to continue in the shoe business.

From a comparatively small beginning the Italian government has increased the number of factories working for its account until national shoes now constitute nearly 50 per cent of the total domestic production. There are at present 54 firms, about 80 per cent of whose production, or 37,050 pairs per day, is for the account of the Italian government.

The government factory prices for these shoes—there are seven grades—run from 17 lire ($3.27) for girls' high blucher shoes, up to 33 lire ($6.37) for men's high shoes, with boys and women's shoes coming in between. The price to the public of these same two grades are $3.86 and $7.43 respectively.

For the distribution of the national shoes, a system of warehouses, has been established throughout Italy. These receive the shoes from the factories, inspect them to see that they conform to the specifications issued by the government, and distribute them to the retailers authorized to sell to the public.

In order to insure distribution to those most in need and least able to pay large prices, and to prevent speculation, the national shoes are delivered only in exchange for a ticket good for one pair of specified type. These tickets are issued by the local prefectures and are valid only for a limited period. In authorized shops a list of the various types and prices of national shoes must be displayed at all times, and under no circumstances can any greater price be demanded.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive Roberts Barton

THE CROW'S ACCIDENT
After the fairies flew away from Scrub-Up Land to stick the pussy-willows on the trees in the Land-Where-Spring-Was-Coming, all the creatures set up a racket again, for each one wanted his turn next. The crow had the loudest voice, so Nick grabbed him to keep him quiet. "My goodness, but you're noisy!" he said. "Mr. Rubadub, shall I lock this selfish old fellow up?"
Rubadub, the fairy-man, put down his scrubbing brush. He was cleaning up the woodchuck after his winter underground. "It isn't a bit of use," he declared. "He's done the same thing every year. The best thing is to fix him up and get rid of him. He's so greedy he's afraid Farmer Smith will plant his corn before he arrives. There's the stove polish—I mean crow polish—on the middle shelf."
Nick got busy and daubed the noisy crow all over with the thick coat and

"My goodness, but you're noisy!" he said. "Mr. Rubadub, shall I lock this selfish old fellow up?"
rubbed it on as hard as he could, until Mr. Bird was as shiny and slick as a new overcoat.

But something happened then that didn't please Mr. Crow a bit, although it served him right, for it was his own fault. He had loafed around old hickory trees so much, the rough bark had nearly ruined his wings. So after Nick had him all blackened and polished, the little boy called to Nancy to bring her scissors and trim off the ragged edges, which she did.
"Now sit quite still," she commanded, beginning to snip. But just as she said it, Mr. Crow spied the Magical Mushroom, and thinking it was something good to eat, gave a dive with his beak. The Mushroom jumped, but you know what happened! The wing Nancy was trimming got a fearful slash.
And oh, but Mr. Crow was mad!

Uncle Sam
"UNCLE SAM, M. D., will answer questions of general interest relating to hygiene, sanitation, and the prevention of disease. Address: INFORMATION EDITOR, U. S. Public Health Service, WASHINGTON, D. C."

PUBLIC HEALTH.
If you want better health, pay the price. Money spent in protecting the health and the lives of the people is the best of all investments. Don't be too eager to pass more health laws, but provide sufficient means to enforce those already on the statute books.

It is a well-known axiom that public health is, within certain limits, a purchasable commodity, and that each community practically fixes by its sanitary policy its sickness and death rates from such preventable diseases as typhoid fever, malaria, tuberculosis, smallpox, etc. The best indication of the adequacy or inadequacy with which a community is handling its health problems is shown in the ability of the existing health organization to lessen the prevalence of sickness.

In the interests of economy and efficiency, for instance, all sanitary work, be it child hygiene, industrial sanitation, school hygiene, milk control, etc., should be centralized and co-ordinated under properly equipped departments of health. Local health administration must be strengthened by the employment of health officers giving their entire time to their duty and fully responsible to the State Department of Health. The Public Health Service holds that at least 2 per cent of the public revenue should be spent for sanitary work, since from no other expenditure is so much profit ultimately derived.

Though both of these have been eliminated in the past year, my physical system does not seem to improve. What shall I do?
A—it is suggested that you have your family physician give you a thorough examination. Under normal conditions it would be expected that you should have regained your physical health by this time. It is possible that there is some trouble underlying your present symptoms. If regular living, good food, fresh air, outdoor exercise and sufficient sleep do not restore your health, by all means go to a doctor and find out what is wrong. If you will send me your address, I will send you a pamphlet entitled, "The Road to Health," and also an article dealing with the treatment of constipation.

The only really effective solution for the High Cost of Living problem yet advanced—"Work more, spend less"—doesn't make a big hit with those who would work less and spend more.

Over in India they have castes. And, seemingly, there are classes here. Man is in one of three classes, necktie class, cravat class, or scarf class.

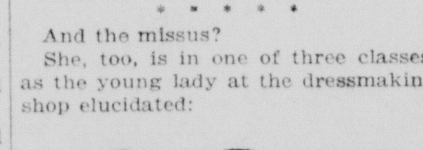

Once mankind was divisible thusly:
(1)—White collar class.
(2)—Shirtsleeves class.

The young man in the gent's furnishing explained:

"It's a necktie if it costs a dollar or less."
"It's a cravat if it taxes you two or three dollars."
"And it's a scarf if you separate yourself from $5 to get it."
"That makes it clear, doesn't it."

And the missus?
She, too, is in one of three classes, as the young lady at the dressmaking shop elucidated:

"If she pays $25 for it it's a dress."
"If she pays as high as $50, it's a frock."
"But if she pays more than a hundred it's a creation."

Three trains a day were put on the Northwestern carrying gravel from Nelson to the double track east of Ashton.

John Santman caught a pickerel weighing nine and three-quarters pounds in the river at this place.

Dr. F. E. Morris, of Chicago, opened a dental office over George D. Laing's feed store.

J. Halstead purchased of J. M. Julian the William Herrick house on Second street for $1,400.

The ceiling and roof trusses of Dixon's new post office were placed in position.

Maximum and minimum temperature for the day was 57 and 30.

William Burhenn, of Franklin Grove, suffered the fracture of three ribs when a tree fell on him.

D. E. Burkett and family of Route 5 rented the Brink property on Poplar street and moved to Dixon.

Confessions of a Bride
(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

"You men are not eating your rations," I protested on the last day of 1919.

I Stand Guard, and Find Myself in Hideous Trap.

"Better not begin tonight, Mrs. Lorimer," laughed Gene Archer. "It's the last day of the year, you know. Why, goblins will walk as the clock strikes twelve and ghosts will stalk when 1920 pushes open its door, you know!"

"If only something would happen—" I laughed.

"Almost anything might happen—in this strange place—tonight," agreed Dr. Spence.

"I'm going to take the midnight watch just the same, boys," I insisted.

And so, at midnight, being the only person awake in the room, I heard the far-off chiming of the church bells. Donna Camilla was due to call on the morrow! That was the message those bells brought to me. When she came the men, of whose presence she had no knowledge, would seize her and we would walk forth to our coveted freedom!

I was half dazed by the vision of liberty. With my eyes fixed vacantly on a panel of the wall opposite me, I went over and over events—as they ought to happen on New Year's Day.

Suddenly the panel in the wall moved as if it were on a hinge. It was not the door by which I had entered Christmas Day. I rubbed my eyes, closed them and raised the lids to find the door wide open!

I rushed toward it, too startled to cry out an alarm. I held it open, felt before me into the darkness and then called to my companions:

"Come! Come! We're free! Free!"

Before I had finished, the swinging door swept me forward and clicked behind me.

I stretched my arms to the right and to the left. I was in a narrow closet. Four cold stone walls were close to me. In a flash there came to me the old story of sinful nuns. They were never condemned to die. There was Constance de Beverly and her lover. Holy men had tried the pair and their decree had read:

"Sister! Let thy sorrows cease.
"Sinful brother! Part in peace!"

Then the girl and the monk who had loved her were immured in a stone cell like—like the one—whose walls I felt so close to me! I had stepped into a cell which had, in all probability, been invented for the punishment of recalcitrant nuns!

I screamed—I hammered on the door of my cell. Then something mysteriously terrifying happened.

Every time I pounded upon the door the floor beneath me rocked slightly. I felt that my cell was sinking with me down—down!

I screamed again—but owing to my excellent habit of restraint, I no longer pounded on the door.

I could hear Spence and Archer rapping back a message to me.

And then what I most feared—happened!

One of the men seized a chair and began to pound away at the door of my closet!

He set my cell in motion! Every blow sent me farther and farther away from rescue!

400 YEARS AGO
Hernando Cortez, Spaniard soldier, really began his conquest of Mexico in April, 1520. The Aztecs, taking advantage of a rift between Cuban-Spaniards and Mexican-Spaniards attempted to retake Mexico City. Fighting continued until the harassed Spaniards fled from Mexico City, June 30, 1520. Cortez returned to the attack the following spring and drove the Aztecs out of the capital. Mexico City then became the leading European city in the new world.

Fernao De Magalhaes (Magellan), Spanish navigator, 400 years ago set sail south from the Rio De La Plata, arriving at the strait known by his name, Oct. 21, 1520. A month later he entered the Pacific. He was killed, April 27, 1521, in a native battle on the island of Mactan. One of the vessels of his fleet continued on to the Cape of Good Hope, arriving in Spain, Sept. 9, 1522, completing the first voyage around the world history mentions.

WOULD TAX BOTH
Paris, April 12.—The French Chamber of Deputies is discussing a measure placing a 10 per cent tax upon celibacy. The measure is not limited to men but includes both sexes, on the theory that women are just as much responsible as men for failure to marry.

It has been argued that celibacy amounts to taxable wealth. Further more, the low French birthrate makes a premium on marriage necessary. It is the opinion of many economists, if France is not to be menaced in the future as she has been in the past.

The effect on the status of women, the economic effects, and the effect upon illegitimate unions is being frankly discussed by the Paris press. The general verdict is that the measure would increase "women's egoism."

A Swiss has invented a remarkable sickroom clock. When a button is pressed an electric lamp behind the dial throws the shadow of the hours and hands magnified upon the ceiling, so that invalids can see it from their beds without putting themselves to any inconvenience.

UNSPOKEN SPEECHES
Unspoken Speeches of the Candidates, As imagined by Edmund Vance Cooke

TODAY: HERBERT HOOVER
"If you have read your Who's Who very well, You know who I am, so I need not tell. I'm not a fiery presidential steed, Groomed for the track and famous for my speed, Whose name the sports and betters loudly call. I am not touted for a place; I'm just a dark horse in the race. (But the Dark Horse is the nightmare of them all!)"

GOVERNOR LOWDEN IS GIVEN ENDORSEMENT BY VOTERS OF LEE

Ran Nearly Three to One
Over Gen. Leonard
A. Wood.

The Republican voters of Lee county yesterday gave Frank O. Lowden a fine endorsement in his candidacy for the party nomination for the presidency, the returns from all but two of the thirty-eight precincts in the county—the missing ones being Brooklyn 2nd and Viola—showing the Governor to have polled 2662 to his opponent's 765. The chief executive carried every precinct except two, the first precinct of China and Nelson going to the army man by a majority of one in each case.

In two or three instances the unofficial early returns did not record the male and female votes separately, and accordingly accurate figures on the separate votes are not available today and will not be until the official canvass of the vote which was started this afternoon in Clerk Dimick's office, is completed. Neither will the democratic vote nor the complete vote on candidates for delegates to the national conventions be available until that time.

The incomplete figures show that Governor Lowden received 1636 men's votes in the county against 654 polled for Gen. Wood and that 426 women cast their ballots for the executive, while 114 voted for the army man. A table showing the vote on presidential candidates will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Hiram Johnson received a scattering vote throughout the county and carried one precinct, Brooklyn first, where he polled 11 votes against 10 for Lowden and 2 for Wood.

Colony Inmate is Found in Freeport

Samuel Topin and Glenn Kiddinger, the latter an inmate of the Dixon State Colony, were found wandering aimlessly in the Illinois Central yards at Freeport Monday evening by the officers, and as both are feeble minded it was some time before the police learned their identity and the fact that one had run away from the local institution. An attendant from the colony went to Freeport yesterday and returned with Kiddinger last evening.

Concerning Topin's case the Freeport Journal-Standard says: "Topin has an entire lapse of memory. He cannot tell where he came from, how he came to be in Freeport or where his home might be. The case is a pitiful one, the fellow is about 28 years of age, very good looking and has an air of refinement about him. He tries hard to remember things which might lead to his identity but he is unable to do so. Chief Root has telegraphed to several state institutions to ascertain if possible successful the young man will probably be taken to the County Home. It is also probable that he may regain his memory and tell of his identity."

SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu, This, Watery or Poisoned Blood (By Dr. VALENTINE MOTT.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alternative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.

Send ten cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of tablets.

Davenport, Iowa.—"Dr. Pierce's medicines have been giving my family the utmost satisfaction for the past fifteen years. I have taken 'Golden Medical Discovery' off and on whenever in a run-down state or in need of a tonic, and one bottle each time restored me to a perfectly healthy condition.

"We think there are no medicines equal to Dr. Pierce's, for they never once failed us and we take the greatest pleasure in recommending these remedies to our friends."—S. P. PLUMB, 1655

MRS. R. T. BUTTS, of Kansas City, who says her life was miserable for two long years before she began taking Tanlac. She now declares she is enjoying the best of health and that she has gained twenty pounds.

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick woman, so I feel like I ought to tell everyone what this wonderful medicine has done for me," was the sincere statement made recently by Mrs. R. T. Butts, 1924 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"By the help of Tanlac I have gotten rid of a severe case of nervous indigestion that had made my life miserable for the past two years. I could not eat anything without suffering afterward. The gas in my stomach would rise up into my chest and press on my heart and at times would almost cut off my breath. My nerves were so upset that the least unexpected noise would almost distract me. I seldom slept well and was so nervous I would often roll and toss until after midnight and what little sleep I did get seemed to do me no good. I was also a great sufferer from headaches and would often get so dizzy I would have to hold on to something to keep from falling.

"One day I happened to see a testimonial for Tanlac, describing a case like mine so I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I began to feel just like a different person. Those terrible headaches disappeared and my appetite returned. When my first bottle was gone I got another and I kept on improving until now I can eat just anything I want and I never suffer any more from indigestion. I am not the least bit nervous and rest well at night and never know what it is to have a headache or a dizzy spell.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my suffering, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in weight and have not enjoyed such good health for years. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I will always feel grateful for what it has done for me. I want to recommend this medicine to all my friends because I believe it will benefit anyone who is suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug and Book Co., and by the leading druggists in every town.

HEADACHE
Caused by Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think. Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repelling, flat and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this set condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its sour, bloated, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by partly digested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—the full vim and vigor you enjoy life and be happy, you must rid of your acid-stomach.

In EATONIC you will find the very help you need and it's guaranteed. So get a big box from your druggist today. If it fails to please you, return it and he will refund your money.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring me sickness on. I was weak, languid, had no energy and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."

HOTEL BREVOORT CHICAGO

A Word of Advice Regarding the Time of Your Visit to Chicago

On June 8 the Republican National Convention convenes in Chicago. For an indefinite time previous to and following that date Chicago hotels will, in all probability, be unable to accommodate persons who have not made reservations far in advance. Another crowded period will be from July 5 to 10, when the great gathering of Elks takes place. It will be well, therefore, for those who can, to so arrange their visit as to come either previous to June 1 or after July 10. Tourists will find the month of August an especially favorable time. In any event, the only safe plan to insure satisfactory hotel accommodations is to reserve rooms well in advance.

This statement by the management is prompted by the keen personal concern for the comfort of its guests which is at all times felt by all the staff of Brevoort Hotel. That you may know and enjoy the full measure of hospitality for which Brevoort Hotel is famed and so find double pleasure in your visit to Chicago is the wish of all.

RATES
Room, bath detached, one person, $2.25 and up, per day.

For quality of service combined with moderation in prices The Main Restaurant and Old English Grill are supreme in Chicago. A unique new feature is the "Cold Buffet" where sandwiches, etc., are served throughout the day.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble.

Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation, send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Dixon Telegraph.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infect the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, hiccups, constipation, indigestion, nervousness, and others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

390 Radicals Are Ordered Deported

Washington, April 13.—Deportation of 390 of the 3,000 persons arrested in the radical raids made by the department of justice against the Communist and Communist Labor parties several months ago has been ordered by the department of labor. A review issued by the department today said 1323 of the cases finally had been disposed of with 933 dismissals ordered.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR. If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Most people lose half of every hatch, and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

Avicol, an Avicol tablet, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thacker, R. F. D. 3, St. Paris, O., writes, "I had 90 chicks and they all died but 32. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find it does the trick, promptly return it. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 585 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED--AND EARNED

BOB'S GREAT NEWS. CHAPTER 111.

I had improved upon my first idea in many ways. I had better cards, and while still retaining "An Artist in Hats," I had a new design in the corner, and had also put my price on them.

"You see, Robert," I told him when we talked it over, "I have a nice list of names. Almost everyone I have worked for has given me two or three. I can't take the time to see them all, but I can write them a short note telling them who spoke of them to me, and enclose a card. The card will give them my price and obviate any misunderstandings as to cost."

"Good idea, go ahead!"

While he said nothing, I think Robert was so pleased to see me contented, happily busy that he would have overlooked a great many things that seemed to annoy him in the old days. But I had no idea of putting him to the test. I had laid out a line of living for myself and was resolved to adhere to it. For, whenever the thought of how nearly I came to losing Robert swept over me, I still turned weak and faint.

Gradually my time was nearly all taken. I averaged three hours a day, so making $6. I found I could not make more than four hours, as the other hour was consumed in going back and forth—although I now planned my work so that I gave the same days as far as possible to those living in the same locality.

One advantage I had—I was paid each day, and so I had no bad debts, no accounts. I had, upon Robert's suggestion, added under my price on the cards "No accounts," and no one had asked me to trust them.

I think this was partly due to my business attitude. I realized that my experience in the shop had been of great value to me in giving me the right attitude toward people, customers, as well as in knowing my trade.

We had been keeping house nearly a year when Robert rushed in one night, his eyes shining, and taking me in his arms he danced around the room like a crazy man.

"I guess you'd be crazy, too!" he exclaimed when, breathless, I compelled him to stop.

"What is it all about?"

"I'm manager of the store at $275 a month, with prospects of more if I am worth it! What do you think of that?"

"I'm delighted, Bob! But it is no more than you deserve."

"What a cinch a man would have if other people thought he was as wise as his wife thinks he is," he laughingly replied.

"I mean it, Bob. You have earned promotion. Now you must make good in every way. Being manager will give you a better chance to use new ideas."

"You bet it will! And I commenced right off the griddle by advancing that young fellow who gave me the idea of catering to kids more than we ever had done. It has grown into one of our best departments."

We talked so excitedly that our dinner was almost cold before we sat down to eat.

I had been waiting for just what happened—before dinner was done Robert said:

"Now you can stop being an Artist in Hats, and stay at home."

"Would it make you any happier?"

"Why, no—of course not. It hasn't interfered with me. I was thinking of you, and that I could at least take care of you decently now."

"Then it wasn't from any objection to my working that you spoke of my remaining at home?"

"Why, no?"

"Then, Mr. Meredith, with your permission I shall still be an Artist in Hats. I never would be happy, Robert—yes, I might be happy in a way, but I would not be as happy as I am now, and not nearly as contented, if I had the time I spend working to loaf. I tried it once, remember."

"Have it your own way, dear," he agreed. "Then, 'We'll take that flat you liked so much in the same house with the Weeds and Murphys. It is only $5 more a month; and if you insist upon clothing yourself, I can afford it."

Tomorrow—Gerry's Success.

Wood Cancelled His Leave of Absence to Handle Rail Strikes

Boston, April 13.—Major General Leonard Wood today cancelled the leave of absence which he obtained to make a campaign for the Republican nomination for president and said he would leave later in the day for Chicago to resume his duties as commanding general of the central department. He stated that his action was due to railroad strike conditions.

General Wood made the announcement at a breakfast tendered him at the Boston City Club. He said:

"The situation of growing seriousness in the country is such that I feel it my duty to give up my leave and to return to my post of command in Chicago. The situation is not one which allows personal considerations to enter into the matter in the least."

It was the intention of General Wood to speak in several eastern states within the next week. He cancelled all of these engagements. The general now is on a two months leave which was granted him by the war department March 20. He will leave for Chicago at 4:45 p. m.

CAMPAIGN TO CONTINUE.

Chicago, April 13.—General Leonard Wood's campaign for the presidential nomination will not be affected by his return to army duties here, his campaign managers announced this morning. The general will make such short speaking tours as he can without interfering with his duties at central department headquarters.

Army officers here have been watching the strike developments closely for several days. Colonel Humphreys, chief of staff, left Monday on a tour of the eastern section of the department. In case of government interference in the railroad strike, the men who policed Gary during the steel strike are again available for duty.
